

WW | spy : scene

Guests received exclusively designed gourmet chocolates by fidani and a skincare gift set from Clarins.

The Weekly's Great Women of Our Time Awards is an outstanding reflection of what confident women today can achieve.

a night to remember

The Weekly's Great Women of Our Time gala was an intimate gathering of dynamic Malaysian women

A perfect example of beauty and brains, emcee for the night Elaine Daly, who's a model, actress, TV host and qualified lawyer, looked chic in a tailored tuxedo by Lord's Tailor.

High-powered executives, social leading lights and celebrities thronged Windows on KL 1 & 2 at Crowne Plaza Mutiara Kuala Lumpur for The Malaysian Women's Weekly Great Women of Our Time Awards 2007. Guest of Honour YB Dato' Sri Shahrizat Abdul Jalil told the crowd, "The women in this room are truly awe-inspiring! You are the new generation of leaders!" Out of the 18 women nominated in this awards scheme, six winners were picked by a three-member judging panel, comprised of Sunita Chhabra, Editor of The Weekly; actress and producer Datin Sri Tiara Jacqueline; and Catherine Ang, Managing Director of Montblanc SEA. Each winner received an award by Royal Doulton and a luxury Montblanc watch worth over RM5,000, which was personalised to reflect their achievements.

Each table was named after an inspiring trait, for example charisma, leadership and generosity.

The main course of cod, vegetables and steamed potatoes.

Guests enjoyed Royale Chocolate Mousse with Raspberry Sauce for dessert.

Managing Director of ACP Magazines, Julie Sherborn (left) with YB Dato' Sri Shahrizat Abdul Jalil, Minister of Women, Family and Community Development.

With her husky voice, Noryn Aziz entertained guests with her rendition of 'I'm a Fire'.

